

Appointments and Consultations:

Dr. Holzman combines years of experience, the most up-to-date surgical techniques and in-office aesthetic treatments in his office, located at 6818 Austin Center Boulevard, Suite 206 near Far West and Mopac.

Office visits are by appointment only, and are usually scheduled 2-4 weeks in advance. To schedule an appointment, please call 512-338-4404, or email us at info@austinplasticsurgery.com. Our friendly staff will be happy to assist you and will work hard to accommodate your scheduling preferences.

Cosmetic consults will be charged $50 at the time of scheduling to reserve the appointment. If the appointment is kept, the fee may be used toward surgical fees, cosmetic injectable or filler costs, or for medical-grade skincare products sold in our office. The fee is not refundable and will apply if the appointment is not cancelled within 2 business days before the appointment date.

Consults for mole removal will be charged $50 at the time of scheduling for the appointment time plus the cost of the treatment after completed. The $50 is not refundable if the appointment is cancelled or is not rescheduled within 2 business days before the appointment date.

Payment Policies:

At Holzman Plastic Surgery, we accept payment by cash, personal or cashier's check, Visa, MasterCard and Discover. Payment for non-surgical services is expected at the time of service. Surgeon's fees are payable to our office prior to your surgery being scheduled.

For your convenience, we provide the surgical fee and estimates of the anesthesiology and operating room charges associated with your procedure. The estimates are based on standard tie intervals for your procedure(s), and may vary if additional time is needed to properly perform your surgery. The surgeon's fee is fixed and will not change despite any additional time required by Dr. Holzman.

Pricing:

Pricing is an important consideration in your decision-making and for that reason, and for that reason, needs to be as precise as possible. All pricing is considered after an in-person consultation, as Dr. Holzman considers each patient's body type, and procedure complexity before fixing a price. Pricing over the phone or via email is discouraged, as it tends to be inaccurate and misleading.

Our Commitment to you:

Dr. Holzman is committed to helping you “become your best self.” Our dedicated team will personally address your individual needs and desires. Dr. Holzman conducts all consultations and gives you his undivided attention and expertise. He will explore various treatments and will help create a plan that works best for you. Remember, aesthetic surgery is an experience that doesn’t just end with your recovery. At Holzman Plastic Surgery, we are your plastic surgery resource for as long as you desire.
